

MATH 2150-02: Differential Equations

Fall 2024

Instructor: Tony Shaheen

E-mail: ashahee@calstatela.edu

Office Hours: Monday and Wednesday 11am - 12pm; location to be determined.

Course Website: Follow the link from <http://www.calstatela.edu/research/ashahee/>

Lectures: Monday and Wednesday, 1:40pm – 2:55pm in SH 267.

Textbook: There is no required textbook for the course. See the website for optional textbooks.

Prerequisite: Math 2130.

Description: Methods of solving first and second order differential equations.

Student learning outcomes: Students who successfully complete this course will be able to use the techniques in this course to solve various kinds of first and second order ordinary differential equations.

Grading: Your grade will be based on two tests and a cumulative final. Each exam will be worth 1/3 of your grade.

Homework: Homework will be assigned, but not collected. The homework problems and solutions are posted on the course website.

Exams: There are two tests and a final. The below dates are tentative. The final time/day is scheduled by the school and it may change.

Test 1: Wednesday, October 9, in class

Test 2: Wednesday, November 13, in class

Tentative final exam date: Wednesday, December 11, 12pm – 2pm

ADA statement: Reasonable accommodation will be provided to any student who is registered with the Office of Students with Disabilities and requests needed accommodation. Let me know if you take your tests with OSD.

Academic honesty statement: Students are expected to do their own work. Copying the work of others, cheating on exams, and similar violations will be reported to the University Discipline Officer, who has the authority to take disciplinary actions against students who violate the standards of academic honesty.

Student responsibilities: Students are responsible for being aware of all announcements that are made in class, such as changes in exam dates, due dates of homework and papers, and cancellation of class due to instructor's absence. Students are responsible for announcements made on days that they are absent.

Students must check their CSULA email account regularly for information from the instructor and the Department. Failure to do so may result in missed deadlines or other consequences that might adversely affect students. Note that you can forward this email account to any other account of your choosing.
