Salon Sessions In Pasadena was the host to 200 of California's boundary-pushing stylists as they came together for a day-long creative jam. Talented, top hair dressers took a break from their celebrity clientele and gathered to push and inspire each other. Themes for the project included "What's New Pussycat?" and "Walk On The Wild Side," among others, with all the hard work leading up to a runway show and photo shoot. Famed fashion photographer, Tomas Musclonico, was on site catching all the action.
