Slippery Rock University (Pa.)

Executives from Slippery Rock University (SRU) and Butler County Community College (BC3) signed articulation agreements that will pave the way for students to more efficiently transfer from BC3 to SRU and earn a bachelor's degree while saving time and money. Read more

University of Arkansas at Little Rock

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock Police Department is hoping to make long-lasting connections with the campus community and surrounding neighborhoods with the start of a community liaison officer program. The community liaison officers will provide safety and security programming, answer questions about law enforcement, anticipate community concerns, and address safety issues. Read more

University of Houston-Clear Lake (Texas)

University of Houston (UH)-Clear Lake's Department of Healthcare Administration's prime location at the Texas Medical Center made it the optimal setting for a visit last summer from Chinese healthcare executives seeking an opportunity to learn more about the American health care system to help improve their own. The Center for Executive Education for the College of Business at UH-Clear Lake serves as the link between the university, local businesses and the community and offers numerous outreach programs.
