

Adv Search _ Students within a Major Concentration

Date: 12/3/20

OVERVIEW

Advisors can use advanced search to identify students within a specific major concentration. E.g. A student who has a major in Women Gender Sexuality Studies with a concentration of Feminist Studies.

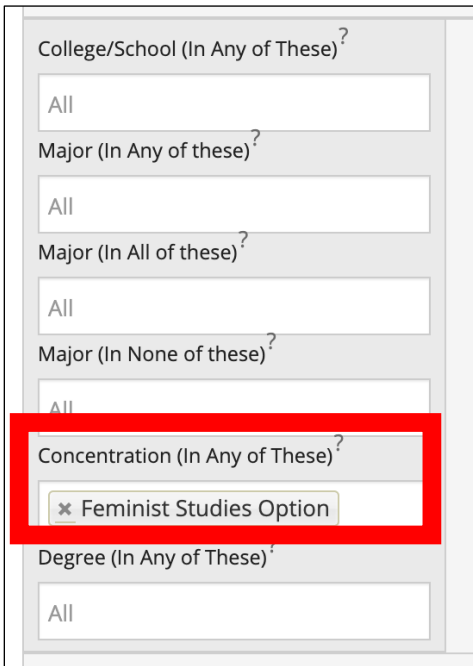

Select Advanced Search

Click on the drop-down menu “Area of Study”

- Enter the concentration you are looking for.
- You may also select a major, but it is not necessary when searching for students in a particular concentration.
