

CAL STATE LA

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

Fine Arts Gallery

2018 CAA MFA Exhibition
"Sustainability and Public Good"
College Art Association
California State University, Los Angeles

Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery at California State University, Los Angeles
January 25 - February 24, 2018 Gallery Hours: 12 noon – 5 pm, Monday – Friday
Reception: Friday, February 23, 5-9pm Music by Kelman Duran 6-8pm
Free and open to the public

CAA/MFA Exhibition is a part of the College Art Association (CAA) Annual Conference. This year Cal State LA's Fine Arts Gallery is proud to host the 2018 CAA's MFA Exhibition "Sustainability and Public Good." The exhibition includes the current 20 MFA student works from 11 different MFA programs in Northern and Southern California. These artists were carefully selected from submissions of 23 MFA programs by 5 invited eminent Los Angeles galleries: Corrina Peipon of The Pit & The Pit II, Eden Phair of HONOR FRASER, HK Zamani of PØST, Mary Leigh Cherry of Cherry and Martin, Peter Mendenhall of Peter Mendenhall Gallery, and curated by the Cal State LA's Fine Arts Gallery Director Mika Cho, and interdisciplinary artist Kim Abeles.

CAA is one of the largest associations both nationally and internationally for Art, Art History and Studio Arts professionals, and promotes the highest levels of creativity and scholarship in the practice, teaching, and interpretation of the arts. This year's annual CAA conference is being held in Los Angeles from February 21 - 24, expecting 5000+ attendees from not only all over the US but overseas as well. The Exhibition Reception is set on Friday the 23rd at 5 to 9pm (open to the public), which will be one of four major receptions of the conference including Hauser & Wirth, Getty, LACMA and Cal State LA.

Music for the reception by Kelman Duran from 6-8pm

Kelman Duran is an artist, filmmaker, and musician who released "1804" through Hundebiss Records in Milan. He has received press from "The Fader and Fact Magazine." He has created original edits and mixes for Radar Radio and NTS Radio in London. Duran is the Resident DJ at RAILUP who has performed "Mustache Mondays" at The Hammer Museum and MOCA in Los Angeles and the Tate Modern in London.

For more information contact:

Cal State LA's Fine Arts Gallery Director, Mika Cho mcho@calstatela.edu 323.343.4022/4040

Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery is located in the Art Department Building at California State University, Los Angeles
5151 State University Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90032