Profile

Carl has more than 30 years of experience as a proactive tax advisor to both private and public companies. His extensive experience ranges from answering the unique issues of both public and privately held companies during the growth phase to managing complex global tax planning structures. Carl has worked with many companies in an acquisition environment, from both a buy- and a sell-side. He has a proven track record managing the many facets of the Federal and State tax systems and has served numerous companies with multi-state and international operations.

Prior to joining Crowe, he spent over 18 years at KPMG LLP. During his tenure as a Partner, Carl led the firm's High Technology Tax Practice in Los Angeles. More recently, Carl served as the Managing Partner of BDO USA LLP's Los Angeles Tax Practice.
