

Invitation to Self-Identify

For Employees or Applicants who have been made an offer of employment

Cal State L.A. University Auxiliary Services, Inc. (UAS) is an Equal Opportunity Employer. As required by law, we must record certain information to be made a part of our Employment Opportunity Program.

Employees are invited to participate in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program by reporting their race, gender, disability or veteran status. In extending this invitation you are also advised that: (a) responses will remain confidential within the Human Resources Department; and (b) responses will be used only for the necessary information to include in our Employment Opportunity Program. Refusal to provide this information will not subject you to any adverse treatment.

It is the policy of UAS to seek and employ qualified personnel, to provide equal employment opportunities for all applicants and employees in recruiting, hiring, placement, training, compensation and benefits, promotion, transfer, and termination. To achieve this UAS will administer all personnel actions without regard to race, color, religion, religious dress practice, religious grooming practice, creed, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, citizenship, gender identity, veteran status or any other protected class and base all such decisions on valid job requirements.

As a Government contractor subject to VEVRAA, we are required to submit a report to the United States Department of Labor each year identifying the number of our employees belonging to each specified "protected veteran" category. If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans listed on page two, please indicate by checking the appropriate box below.

Please complete the information requested below. Thank you for your cooperation.

Individual with a disability (under ADAAA) means any person who:

- has an impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities
- a record of such an impairment, or
- being regarded as having such an impairment
- includes any impairment that is episodic or in remission if it would substantially limit a major life activity when active
- prohibits consideration of the ameliorative effects of "mitigating measures" when assessing whether an impairment substantially limits a person's major life activities, with one exception

QUALIFIED VETERAN:

A "disabled veteran" is one of the following: a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or show citation box or a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service.

An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

An "Armed forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.
